About the Forum

The Urban Community Forum has provided a platform for dialogue and action on issues confronting Northeast Ohio's African-American community for 16 years. This year we face critical issues that are local and global and impact us all. To broaden the conversation, the CSU Office of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs has partnered with the Congresswoman Stephanie Tubbs Jones Commemorative Forum Series seeking to amplify the call for social and political activism in 2012 during this pivotal time in our community and in U. S. history.
