I want to make Coordination 4 You a one stop shop for their event needs. I am happy with making their special day memorable." By JAMES W. WADE III Staff Reporter

Coordination 4 You LLC is a home based Special Events Service Company that specializes in planning, coordinating, and designing special events. The company is owned by Chantell Cabbell a 29 year old ,single mother from Cleveland, Ohio.

She attended Warrensville Heights Ci-ty School were she graduated in 2000.

She started designing in high school. Her passion was drawing prom dresses for my classmates, and she would sketch out wedding dresses for brides she knew.

She started party planning and decorating years ago for family and friends.

"I found out then that I had a special talent in that area. My first wedding that I decorated for was in 2003," she said.

From there, she ga-ined interest in the whole process of wedding planning and designing.

Chantel would plan and decorate birthday parties, baby showers, bridal showers, wedding reception, and retirement parties.

Getting so much positive feedback and referrals which helped her gain more clientele through word of mouth.

“I have always had a love for party planning and decorating, and I have always wanted to become a business owner,” said Chantel.

She is truly glad that she chose this as a starting business.

“Sharing my creativity to make people happy is one of the best gifts to give. I love to see the smiles on my client's faces when they see the end result of my event design; it is highly fulfilling and rewarding,” Chantell added.

Her dream is to one day to turn Coordination 4 You LLC into a full service Event Planning where we will offer our own Catering, Photo-graphy, Entertaining, and ECT.

“Most clients would love to have one vendor to host their event verses 6 different vendors. I want to make Coordination 4 You a one stop shop for their event needs. I am happy with making their special day memorable.”
