Cincinnati State women are niot to be played with.
The Lady Surge win 93 to 52 over Lincoln Trail to improve to 2-0 on the season. Sophomore Brittiney Latimer (Xenia HS) scored 16 points to lead all scorers along with 10 rebounds. Taylor Frazier (Middletown HS) grabbed 12 rebounds to go along with 15 points. Kara McLemore (Trotwood - Madison) and Alexis Fitzpatrick (Colerain) each scored 14 points. McLemore and Latimer also each recorded 6 steals on the evening. Cincinnati State will return to action at home tomorrow at 3 pm against Rend Lake CC. ABOUT CINCINNATI STATE ATHLETICS

Cincinnati State has proven to be one of the most successful junior college programs in the nation. Women's basketball repeated as champions of the Ohio Community College Athletic Conference in 2009 and 2010. Women's soccer finished ranked 13th nationally amongst all junior colleges. The most crowning achievements were earned by men's basketball, men's soccer, men's golf, and women's basketball as each team competed in the NJCAA National Tournament and made school history with record breaking results over the past two years as shown below:

Men's Basketball - 2010 NJCAA National Runners - Up, 2010 OCCAC Champions, 2010 Overall Record: 27-9, Head Coach: Andre Tate

Men's Golf - 2010 & 2011 NJCAA National Tournament Qualifier, 2010 & 2011 NJCAA Region XII Champions, Head Coach: Scott Webb

Men's Soccer - 2010 NJCAA National Runners Up, 2010 NJCAA Region XII Champions, 2010 OCCAC Champions, #2 National Ranking in 2010, 2010 Overall Record: 22-3-0,

2011 OCCAC Champions, Head Coach: Mike Combs

Women's Basketball - 2011 NJCAA National Tournament Qualifier, 2011 Region XII Champions, #7 National Ranking, 2011 Overall Record: 24-11, Interim Head Coach: Ron Harris