Get ready for a no-holds barred live experience like no other when Drumline Live returns to Cl eveland. Tickets as low as $10 at

www.playhousesquare.org

CLEVELAND – Get ready for a no-holds barred live experience like no other when Drumline Live returns to

Cleveland featuring the show-style marching band tradition of A merica

's top Historically Black Colleges and Universities. It mixes the rousing and rhythmic sounds of Motown, jazz and gospel with the hottest contemporary hip-hop and R&B to provide a glimpse into an American art form that many have never seen.

"We've taken the excitement of an HBCU football game halftime show, increased the intensity by a thousand watts, and created a musical journey that will touch every emotion."

- Don P. Roberts, creator and director

Tuesday, 08 November 2011 19:17

Created by the music team behind 20th Century Fox's hit movie "Drumline," Drumline Live is thrilled to share the American Marching Band experience with a wider audience at PlayhouseSquare's State Theatre Nov. 16-17. The performance is part of the U.S. Bank Star Performance Series.

PlayhouseSquare encourages all guests to "Plan Your Visit" ahead of time by visiting PlayhouseSquare.org and clicking the "Plan Your Visit" tab where directions, parking information, dining options, lodging, ticketing policies and other useful information designed to enhance guest experiences at PlayhouseSquare exist. Whether their visit is the first or one hundred and first, PlayhouseSquare is committed to making guest experiences both as memorable and hassle free as possible.

This performance engagement is a part of the Smart Seats program at PlayhouseSquare that offers smart entertainment at a smart price. For more information on Smart Seats, visit playhousesquare.org/smartseats

.

Beginning at 8 p.m., Drumline Live returns to PlayhouseSquare Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17 in the State Theatre. Tickets range from $10 - $39.50 each and are on-sale now. To order, visit the PlayhouseSquare Ticket Office, call (216) 2 41-6000

or visit

www.playhousesquare.org