2 found dead on the east side Monday.

CLEVELAND - Cleveland police are investigation after two people were found dead at a house on the city's east side.

The bodies were discovered just before noon on Monday at a residence in the 10200 block of Hampden Avenue. Cleveland police are calling it a murder/suicide.

According to police, the female victim had suffered multiple gunshot wounds to her upper body, while the male, 32, had a single gunshot wound to his chest. Both were unresponsive and pronounced dead at the scene. Officers recovered a handgun.

The Cuyahoga County Medical Examiner's office has identified the woman as 31-year-old Ranna Peal. The two bodies were found when a friend of Peal's went to check on her, police said.

The name of the male has not been released, pending next of kin notification. The medical examiner will determine each victim's official cause of death.
