

Overnight Breaking News

CLEVELAND – The Cleveland police are searching for a driver after an SUV crashed into a home overnight on the city's west side.

Police said around 2:15 a.m., officers were dispatched to West 17401 Flamingo Avenue for reports of an SUV into a home.

On scene, paramedics found no one inside the vehicle. No one inside the home was injured.

Overnight crash has police looking for driver

Tuesday, 06 November 2012 08:37

Police towed the SUV for evidence. No arrests have been made.